St. Martin of Tours

St. Martin of Tours is famous for sharing his cloak with a man who was begging in the cold. He was a soldier in the Roman army, and one day, during a severe winter, he met a poor man who was begging near the gate to the city. The man was almost naked and was trembling with cold. Martin felt called to help the man, but had nothing with him. He drew his sword and cut his army cloak in two—wrapping himself in what was left and giving the beggar the other half.

That night, Martin had a dream in which he saw Jesus himself dressed in the half of his cloak that he had cut. “Martin has covered me with his garment,” he heard Jesus say.

This experience deeply affected him, and after leaving the army, he became a monk and eventually a bishop, known for his kindness and compassion

Obligation of Assisting the “Poor Souls”

During the long captivity, God’s people, sitting on the shores of the Euphrates, moaned and cried in remembering Zion. So the Souls in Purgatory, plaintive and doleful, long for the joys of the heavenly mansion. They have had a glimpse of its glory and happiness, but because they were too much attached to earthly pleasures, they will be deprived, perhaps for a long time, of the celestial joys. They remember all the negligence of their former life, which now obstructs their way to Heaven. What sorrows! What remorse! Because they have preferred a moment of pleasure to the enjoyment of Heaven. Then the poor, desolate souls accuse themselves, saying with the Prophet: “I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me.” (Ps. 50, 5).

Since God has granted us the power of paying the debts of the “Poor Souls” with our works, let us appreciate this immense privilege. A noble heart should be delighted in relieving the poor, in consoling the afflicted, in bringing peace and happiness to those who suffer. Such is the privilege of those who assist the Souls suffering in Purgatory, because they deliver them from the hardest captivity and they open to them the gates of Heaven.

Moreover our charitable deeds for the “Poor Souls” will secure for us the gratitude of God Himself. “When,” said our Lord to His holy servant Gertrude, “a Soul is liberated by your prayers, I accept it, as if I had been Myself liberated from captivity, and I will assuredly reward you according to the abundance of My mercy.”

Perform today as an act of mortification or obedience for the relief of the “Poor Souls”. Be faithful in little things. Everything is great which is done for the Glory of God.

St. John Chrysostom recommended to every Christian family that they have a box at some convenient place in the house and that they put into it pennies, which will be used to have Masses said for the “Poor Souls”. Pray and give alms for the most abandoned Souls.

--Novena for the Poor Souls in Purgatory

CHRIST THE KING PROCESSION – Nov. 23rd

Join us in celebrating Christ the King! The Eucharistic Procession will begin after the 12:30 PM Mass. The 2:30 PM Latin Mass will be moved to 5:00 PM.

Christ the King is one of the most important titles of Jesus. Even though Jesus Christ was not a king in the earthly sense, He is the divine King of the Universe, who unites all of creation with the Father. As St. Paul tells us, 1

Cor. 15:25-28 For [Christ] must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. . . .When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to Him who put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

Since the candle holder is very old and fragile, the changing of these candles is the responsibility of the Parish Office staff only.
