REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONES

The All Souls envelopes are in the back of the church. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to remember your loved ones! Write the name of your deceased loved ones on the All Souls envelope and place it in the collection basket during Mass. All of the envelopes will be placed on the altar for the whole month of November.

O gentle heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on them. Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames. And Merciful Savior send Your angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

St. Martin of Tours

St. Martin of Tours is famous for sharing his cloak with a man who was begging in the cold. He was a soldier in the Roman army, and one day, during a severe winter, he met a poor man who was begging near the gate to the city. The man was almost naked and was trembling with cold. Martin felt called to help the man, but had nothing with him. He drew his sword and cut his army cloak in two—wrapping himself in what was left and giving the beggar the other half.

That night, Martin had a dream in which he saw Jesus himself dressed in the half of his cloak that he had cut. "Martin has covered me with his garment," he heard Jesus say.

This experience deeply affected him, and after leaving the army, he became a monk and eventually a bishop, known for his kindness and compassion

The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary November 21st

Bonds of love, not of blood

For the Memorial of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the liturgy proposes the passage from Matthew that speaks about how we are "related" to Jesus. It is a relationship not formed by blood, but by imitation: "Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother". To become a member of "His family", one must do so not by blood or belonging to a particular religion. Rather, it is a free and personal choice that translates into a commitment to do the will of the Father.

Mary, the first disciple

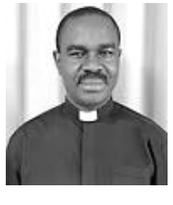

Confirming what has just been said, Jesus Himself said this in responding thus to a woman who was praising His Mother: " 'Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed.' He replied, 'Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.' " Mary is the woman who knows how to listen, who knows how to contemplate, who knows how to refer everything to her Son – "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn. 2:5). Mary is the One who never abandoned her Son Jesus, not even along the way of the Cross. She "stood" under the Cross. She is a disciple who never abandons the Lord Jesus, who always "stands behind" Him.

Mary, model for Christians

All of this can help us imitate the Virgin Mary. Every Christian is called to look at Mary so as to learn from her, to entrust themselves to her intercession and to guard the "purity of the faith" against any idols that surround us.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection,
implored thy help,
or sought thy intercession,
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence
I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee do I come,
before thee I stand,
sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

CHRIST THE KING

Join us in celebrating Christ the King on Sunday, November 22nd! The Eucharistic Procession will begin after the 12:30 PM Mass. The 2:30 PM Latin Mass will be moved to 5:00 PM.

Christ the King is one of the most important titles of Jesus. Even though Jesus Christ was not a king in the earthly sense, He is the divine King of the Universe, who unites all of creation with the Father. As St. Paul tells us, 1 Cor. 15:25-28 For [Christ] must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. . . .When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to Him who put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

The Parish Office will be closed on Thursday, November 19th for a West End Vicariate Meeting.
