“Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. ... Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.”

2025 DDF CAMPAIGN

Our next appeal will be NEXT WEEKEND!

It’s so easy to condemn the shortcomings of others, to point the finger outward instead of looking inward. Jesus doesn’t condemn. He invites us in. He doesn’t exclude.

The people in the Gospel, those with stones in their hands, reflect on Jesus’ simple but powerful statement: “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” They saw in themselves guilt. But they also recognized that in stoning the adulteress they’d avoid compounding sin. The path Jesus lays out is a path of salvation, for all of us. All of us need His mercy. All of us need His mercy. All of us need His redemptive love. We can be a bearer of this mercy and love to others when we support programs that draw others to Christ, such as the Diocesan Development Fund. Please consider contributing to the appeal this Lent.

J.M.J. 5th SUNDAY IN LENT April 6, 2025

St. John Baptist de la Salle

He was the founder of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, commonly known as the Christian Brothers. He was the oldest of 11 children from a noble, French family. John cut his studies short, when his parents died to take care of his brothers and sisters. He finally finished school and was ordained a priest in 1678. Coming from a noble family, John was named a Canon of the Reims Cathedral. As Canon, he was challenged by a layman who had established free schools for the poor in Rouen to do the same in Reims. John slowly became more and more involved with the poor children of Reims. Eventually, he would found the Christian Brothers as an Order of religious brothers dedicated to teaching the poor. He insisted that the Christian Brothers' schools be free for all students and taught in the vernacular language of the people they served. When describing his vocation, John said God led him "in an imperceptible way and over a long period of time so that one commitment led to another in a way that I did not foresee in the beginning." In 1950 was declared the patron saint of teachers.

Prayer to St. John Baptiste de la Salle

O God, You chose your blessed confessor Jean-Baptiste to give Christian education to the poor and to confirm young people in the way of truth, and through him You established a new religious congregation in your Church; grant that through his intercession and example, we may be inspired with zeal for Your glory and the salvation of souls, and be found worthy to share his reward in heaven.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.
