THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD
January 12, 2025

Celebrate the Day of Your Baptism

Today's feast stresses how Jesus, at the beginning of his public life, wanted to receive the "baptism of conversion" (Lk 3:3), administered by John in the Jordan. This act, by which he, though innocent, showed his solidarity with sinners, became a moment of revelation. In fact, as he came out of the water, "immediately he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove" (Mk 1:10). By this singular experience, Jesus is accredited as the Messiah awaited for centuries.

In the Jordan the voice of the Father resounds: "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased" (Mk 1:11). These words shed light on the mystery of Jesus Christ: he is not only a "man of God", like the prophets and saints, but the Son, the Only-Begotten One (Jn 1:18).

As the eternal Son, Jesus is consubstantial with the Father and the Holy Spirit and lives eternally-in the Trinitarian communion of the one God. In the Incarnation, the Spirit of God completely fills his humanity. At his Baptism in the Jordan, the Spirit rests upon him to initiate him into the messianic ministry and to inaugurate that great "hour" of grace which will be completed by his Death and Resurrection. Indeed, Jesus Christ is the inexhaustible source of God's Spirit for every man and woman who is open to his offer of salvation.

Dear brothers and sisters, today's feast sheds light on one of the spiritual priorities of our journey towards the Holy Year: the need to have an ever deeper awareness of Baptism as "the basis of Christian living" (Tertio millennio adveniente, n. 41). Those who receive this sacrament are baptized in the Spirit of God, to become members of Christ and with him and with our brothers and sisters, to form "one body" (1 Cor 12:13). An immense gift! We should celebrate the day of our Baptism as we do our birthday! But how many of the baptized are fully aware of what they have received? We must give a new impetus to catechesis, to rediscover this gift which also means taking on a great responsibility. May the Mother of God, the Mother of Jesus, accompany us on this demanding journey of reinvigorating our faith.

---Pope John Paul II

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children – January 22nd

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court legalized abortion throughout the United States in its companion decisions Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton. Since that time, millions of children have lost their lives, and millions of women and families have been wounded by abortion.

On June 24, 2022, the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision overturned Roe v. Wade, and we praise God for the great opportunity state and federal legislators now have to protect pre-born children. While God, in His mercy, ended the nearly fifty-year nationwide regime of abortion on demand, right now state and federal laws, in many instances, are still hostile to pre-born children. So, great prayer and advocacy is very needed.

How to Participate: Not sure how to observe this day of prayer and penance? Pick from the ideas below or offer some other prayer or sacrifice that you feel called to do.

Go to Mass, Abstain from meat, Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Fast, Pray a decade of the Rosary, Give up TV and movies for the day, Offer A Prayer for Life to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, Sacrifice some of your free time to do a small act of service for someone else

The Parish Office will be closed on January 20th in observance of the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday.

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

“When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of others; so too, others’ lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them.”
