REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONES

The All Souls envelopes are in the back of the church. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to remember your loved ones! Write the name of your deceased loved ones on the All Souls envelope and place it in the collection basket during Mass. All of the envelopes will be placed on the altar for the whole month of November.

"The holy pastor of Ars, St. John Vianney, the patron of parish priests, once said: 'Oh, if it were but known how great is the power of the good souls in purgatory with the heart of God, and if we knew all the graces we can obtain through their intercession, they would not be so much forgotten. We must, therefore, pray much for them, that they may pray for us.'

These last words of St. John Vianney indicate the true manner of having recourse to the souls in Purgatory. We must assist them, to obtain their prayers and the effects of their gratitude in return. We must pray much for them that they may pray much for us."

--Father F.X. Schouppe, S.J.

Pray for the deceased, so that when they shall have attained Heaven, they will not fail to pray for you…They who are laying, in torments cry out to us daily and few answer them; they utter their mournful plea, and there is none to comfort them. How awful a cruelty! Truly, this is a great inhumanity! Consider for a moment: if a man lying ill on his bed cries out in pain, his suffering is relieved by the doctor!...A donkey falls, and all hastened to help him up; but a member of the faithful cries out in torments, and none answer his plea!

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 398-4838

"Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families. While palliative care cannot entirely eradicate suffering from people's lives, it provides an authentic expression of human and Christian care—allowing us to 'remain' at the side of a suffering person, as the Blessed Mother and the beloved disciple remained at the foot of the Cross…The path of accompaniment until the moment of death must remain open, with appropriate care for body and soul customized to the personal needs of the patient."

Devout Intercessions for the Suffering Souls in Purgatory

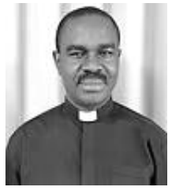

God Almighty, Father of goodness and love, have mercy on the poor suffering souls, and grant Thine aid:
To my dear parents and ancestors,
To my brothers, sisters and near relatives,
To my benefactors, spiritual and temporal,
To my former friends and their acquaintances,
To all for whom love or duty bids me to pray,
To those who have suffered disadvantage or harm through me,
To those who have offended me,
To all those who are especially beloved by Thee,
To those whose release is at hand,
To those who desire most to be united with Thee,
To those who endure the greatest suffering,
To those whose release is most remote,
To those who are least remembered,
To those who are most deserving on account of their service to the Church,
To the rich, who now are the most destitute,
To the mighty, who are now as lowly servants,
To the blind, who now see their folly,
To the frivolous, who spent their time in idleness,
To the poor, who did not seek the treasures of heaven,
To the tepid, who devoted little time to prayer,
To the indolent, who were negligent in performing good works,
To those of little faith, who neglected the frequent reception of the Sacraments.
To the habitual sinners, who owe their salvation to a miracle of grace,
To parents who failed to watch over their children,
To superiors, who were not solicitous for the salvation of those entrusted to them,
To the souls of those who strove for hardly anything, but riches and pleasures,
To the worldly-minded, who failed to use their wealth and talents in the service of God,
To those who witnessed the death of others, but would not think of their own,
To those who did not provide for the great journey beyond, and the days of tribulation.
To those whose judgement is so severe because of the great things entrusted to them,
To the Popes, kings and princes,
To the bishops and their counselors,
To my teachers and spiritual advisers,
To the deceased priests of this Diocese,
To all priest and religious of the whole Catholic Church,
To the defenders of the holy Faith,
To those who died on the battlefield, and in public service.
To those who are buried at sea,
To those who died of Apoplexy,
To those who died without the last rites of the Church,
To those who shall die within the next twenty-four hours,
To my own poor soul when I shall have to appear before thy judgement seat.
O Lord, grant to all souls of the faithful departed eternal rest. Let perpetual light shine on them. May they rest in peace.
Amen.

CHRIST THE KING

Join us in celebrating Christ the King on Sunday, November 22nd! The Eucharistic Procession will begin after the 12:30 PM Mass. The 2:30 PM Latin Mass will be moved to 5:00 PM.

Christ the King is one of the most important titles of Jesus. Even though Jesus Christ was not a king in the earthly sense, He is the divine King of the Universe, who unites all of creation with the Father. As St. Paul tells us, 1 Cor. 15:25-28 For [Christ] must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. . . .When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to Him who put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
